

Auf Einladung von ECHA (European Council for High Ability) nahm der LVH BW an der 8. ECHA Konferenz vom

Article 11/3 further dictates that the state must provide any means required to make such upbringing and education po

76 percent (165) of the parents had never considered taking legal action, 7.8 percent (17) of the parents di

- whose lawyers can maintain to have substantial experience in this field.
- Not all parents have the courage, perseverance and money to invest and engage in legal proceedings; most even give up at an early stage of consideration without further pursuing the legal has not gone unnoticed with our state school officials. It is in fact the very reason why so little change in this area has been achieved for three decades.

B. Financial Investment

If parents only very hesitatingly invest their money in matters of principle such as

